CRITERIA FOR JUDGING

50% Content – This criterion measures the substance and relevance of the story to Philippine food. How relevant is the entry to Philippine Cuisine?

30% Presentation – This criterion validates the entry's accuracy whether it features genuine regional food heritage. How true is the entry to that region's local culinary culture?

20% Originality – This criterion judges the entry's creative originality based on the topic and perspective. How creative is the entry?

ANNOUNCEMENT OF WINNERS

Winners will be notified through their contact details and announced at the Mga Kuwentong Pagkain Official Facebook Page: (<https://www.facebook.com/MgaKuwentongPagkain>), Mama Sita Website (www.msita.com), and through the Media.

Submit your entries! For the complete mechanics and entry forms, visit the MKP Facebook page or www.mamasitafoundation.com.

Inspired by Teresita "Mama Sita" Reyes' own passion of writing her culinary adventures and experiences, "Mga Kuwentong Pagkain (MKP)" was launched as a nationwide contest aimed to encourage everyone to share authentic, one-of-a-kind and little known stories on Philippine cuisine and cooking.

MKP is ongoing and open to all who want to share their memorable encounters with Philippine food, cooking and dining. The underlying objective of the contest is to gather as many stories as possible to make a valuable and detailed compilation of Philippine food, especially since so many Philippine food preparation stories and recipes are being forgotten.

DEADLINE FOR THE SUBMISSION OF ENTRIES IS ON JANUARY 26, 2018.

1. RATIONALE

MGA KUWENTONG PAGKAIN (MKP) is a project of the Mama Sita Foundation (MSF) as a way to preserve and promote our Philippine culinary heritage, echoing the mission of Teresita "Mama Sita" Reyes's advocacy throughout her life. In celebration of Mama Sita's 100th birth centennial, the MSF launches Mula sa Kusina ni Mama Sita: Mga Kuwentong Pagkain with the theme on Regional Food Heritage.

2. OBJECTIVES

The contest aims to:

1. Gather regional food heritage stories and recipes from Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao featuring heirloom food (local food sources and ingredients; dishes passed on through generations) and culinary traditions (old cooking methods, food norms, rituals, food beliefs, local food etiquette, etc.) by tapping SMEs, local communities, schools and universities, different regional or provincial government offices and even Filipinos living abroad.
2. Increase awareness of the public on Philippine heirloom food and culinary traditions by publishing selected entries on different print and social media channels and showcasing these stories in different Mama Sita Foundation initiatives.
3. Preserve these food stories and recipes by printing selected entries in a book format and publishing all the entries online, creating a heirloom food story bank which the public can access.

3. ELIGIBILITY
